Hello Matthias,
Yes, if you mention the source, you can publish it.

Thank you very much for consulting us.

Best Regards

Comment: Dear team,

we had a really warm May in Stockholm and I wondered, if this is really true or only a feeling. So, I gathered some weather data from your site and processed as well as plotted them. And yes, May in Stockholm was really warm. Now, I would like to publish these plots on my personal GitHub site. Do you think, this is possible? Of course, I mention the data source.
Thanks, and best
Matthias
